Since mankind has evolved, humans have changed the environment to enhance his life and satisfy his needs through several developmental activities. Industrialization and urbanization have brought rapid social, economic, and technological changes in the society. In mean time, industrialization has contributed to serious environmental degradation and pollution by the excess usage and disposal of various hazardous wastes and chemicals. Environment is the very reason for our existence. Saving environment is ultimately saving us only.

Safety is the key factor in any chemical or manufacturing industry. Industrial safety is important as it safeguards human life, especially in high risk areas such as nuclear, chemical, oil and gases, and mining industries, where a fatal mistake can be catastrophic. It reduces risks to people, properties, and processes.
